

For immediate release

For more information call:
Beth Friedman, President
The Friedman Marketing Group
888.884.8364
beth@tfmgcom.com

The Friedman Marketing Group Announces Co-Sponsorship of the FORE Donor Reception at the AHIMA Annual Convention in Seattle

LYNCHBURG, VA (September 23, 2008) – The Friedman Marketing Group (TFMG) is pleased to announce that it will co-sponsor the VIP donor reception for the Foundation of Research and Education (FORE) in Seattle on October 14th at the 80th annual convention of the American Health Information Management Association \(AHIMA\). The event, which serves to honor and thank the top corporate sponsors and individual member donors, will be attended by approximately 100 of AHIMA/FORE's leading professionals and most important supporters.

"We recognize the extraordinary leadership and resources that AHIMA and FORE provide to the health information management (HIM) industry," says Beth Friedman, RHIT, President of TFMG. "It is an honor for us to support them in recognizing the companies and individuals who contribute to the organizations' efforts in providing education and establishing the highest standards for HIM practitioners."

Headquartered in Lynchburg, VA, TFMG offers a wide array of marketing services including public relations, thought leadership, online marketing services and lead generation. All team members have career backgrounds in healthcare and possess solid media, industry leadership and national association relationships. For more information about the company, visit their website at: www.tfmgcom.com.